

HADLEY PUBLIC SCHOOLS LEGAL STATUS

The legal basis for public education in the District is vested in the will of the people as expressed in the Constitution of Massachusetts and state statutes pertaining to education.

Under the General Laws of Massachusetts,

"... Every town shall maintain... a sufficient number of schools for the instruction of all children who may legally attend a public school therein."

The public educational system of the Hadley Public Schools is structurally a department of the town operated under laws pertaining to education and under regulations of the Massachusetts Board of Education. The area served by the Hadley Public Schools is coterminous with the Town of Hadley.
